

Teen Advisory Board

The Teen Advisory Board at AMFA offers an opportunity for creative and motivated high school students to play a pivotal role in developing teen programming, providing cross-generational mentorship, and contributing to the vibrant arts community in Central Arkansas. The TAB will advise AMFA on how to better serve teen audiences and plan projects that promote dialogue and inclusion.

2024-2025 Teen Advisory Board Benefits

The TAB will become immersed in the Museum, Performing Arts, and Art School through tours, activities, and behind-the-scenes conversations with AMFA staff.

Earn volunteer hours.

2024-2025 Teen Advisory Board Goals

Preview and provide feedback for various AMFA initiatives.

Design and facilitate Teen Takeover events to be held throughout the year.

Contribute to AMFA's communication strategies for teens.

2024-2025 Teen Advisory Board Commitments

The board's term will be a year long beginning in August 2024.

Members will meet twice a month.

Meetings will include a variety of in-person activities and will require travel to the museum or local cultural partners. The location, time, and duration of these meetings will be determined based on the activity and will be communicated no later than a month prior to board members. These meetings will take place in the evenings or weekends.

Who Should Apply

Applicants must be a high school student in Central Arkansas during the 2024-2025 school term.

Applicants should have interest in the visual and performing arts, film, choir, band or any other type of art.
