Arkansas Museum of Fine Arts to Create Over 100 New Jobs
Will Host On-Site Hiring Events in February

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (February 2, 2023) – The Arkansas Museum of Fine Arts (AMFA) is creating over 100 new jobs as the museum prepares for its grand opening on April 22, 2023. AMFA is hiring both part-time and full-time positions targeting skillsets and expertise in a wide range of fields. AMFA will host a series of on-site hiring events in February for potential applicants.

“AMFA is a cultural hub for Little Rock with a mission to build community through the visual and performing arts,” said Dr. Victoria Ramirez, executive director. “We are working together to improve the quality of life in our region and are excited to expand our team and impact.”

Currently, AMFA has administrative, custodial, food services, guest experience, sales associate, security, special events, and other positions available. AMFA is hiring artists to teach classes in a variety of media. For additional information about job openings, please visit AMFA's website.

AMFA will hold job fairs at the museum on February 15, February 16, February 22, and February 23, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Interested applicants can park in the lot labeled “Employee Parking” off 10th and Commerce in downtown Little Rock. Applicants are encouraged to bring copies of their resume with references included.

About the Arkansas Museum of Fine Arts

Founded in 1937, the Arkansas Museum of Fine Arts is the largest cultural institution of its kind in the state, offering a unique blend of visual and performing arts experiences. AMFA is committed to featuring diverse media and artistic perspectives within its permanent collection of 14,000 works of art as well as through rotating temporary exhibitions. AMFA's international collection spans seven centuries, with strengths in works on paper and contemporary craft, and includes notable holdings by artists from Arkansas, the Mid-South region, and across the United States and Europe. With a vibrant mix of ideas, cultures, people, and places, AMFA extends this commitment to diversity through its dynamic children's theatre and performing arts program, the innovative Windgate Art School, and community-focused educational programs for all ages. Located in Little Rock's oldest urban green space, MacArthur Park, AMFA's landmark building and grounds are designed by Studio Gang and SCAPE, in collaboration with Polk Stanley Wilcox Architects.
